

LAVAL FAMILIES MAGAZINE
WITH THE
SIR WILFRID LAURIER SCHOOL BOARD

YOUNG AUTHORS CONTEST 2017-2018

NEW CHALLENGE

YAC JOURNALIST FOR A DAY

Interview a local personality and have your article published in our magazine!

This contest is open to any student of the SWLSB
in elementary or high school

How to Participate:

Register online in the contest section at www.lavalfamilies.ca. You will be asked to submit a one paragraph explanation (100 words minimum) about why you are interested in becoming a journalist for a day. Your contest submission must include your full name, your school and grade, a parent's phone number and a parent's email address.

The two first winners will be drawn for the September-October 2017 issue, and 2 more will continue to be drawn before each following 4 issues of the magazine, for a grand total of 10 winners. There will be one winner from the elementary sector and one from the high school sector per draft. The winners will each be assigned a personality to interview, and their article will be published in the following issue of LFM! Each winner will be coached and mentored by LFM's Editor to prepare for their celebrity interview and article writing. Our Editor will assist our winners during the interview process and photoshoot.

